Pre-existing health conditions are associated with 18.8% of all incidents in the National Incident Dataset. The figure below shows the most frequently identified contributory factors, and relationships between factors, associated with incidents involving a pre-existing condition.